Notice to Centres

Teachers sharing non-examination assessment material and candidates' work

The sharing of exemplar assessment material for reference purposes encourages good teaching practice. However, teachers must closely control and supervise the issuing of work for non-examination components produced by former candidates in a previous year and the sharing of exemplar non-examination assessment. This will ensure that candidates do not use such material for their own work.

Centres must keep live non-examination assessment material and candidates' work secure and confidential at all times whilst in their possession. Teaching staff must not share live non-examination assessments with candidates or post candidates' work on social media.

(Live non-examination assessment is defined as any work on a topic which has been set either by an awarding body or the centre for a current or future examination series, even if the work was completed in a previous year.)

Teachers must inform candidates that the copying of any non-examination assessment material in order to present it as their own constitutes malpractice. Candidates must not submit work which is not their own. Further information may be found within Section 9 of the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting non-examination assessments.

Teachers must not encourage candidates to assist one another when producing work.

Teachers must remind candidates that they must not make their work available to others through any medium: they must not, for example, post and share their work on social media (<http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/information-for-candidates-documents>).

Where the specification permits some assignments to be undertaken as part of a group, reference should be made to paragraph 4.5 of the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting non-examination assessments and the awarding body's specification.

Exemplar material produced by an awarding body must be used in accordance with the awarding body's instructions. If teachers are in any doubt, they should contact the awarding body for subject-specific advice and guidance.
